

The image shows the interior of a modern bar named 'Loading Bay'. The space has a high ceiling with exposed concrete beams and industrial-style lighting. A central bar with a white front and a dark back is visible, with the name '[LOADING BAY]' in large, illuminated letters above it. The bar is surrounded by high-top stools and small round tables. To the right, there is a staircase with a metal railing and a large potted plant. The overall atmosphere is warm and contemporary.
